ADVERTISEMENT.

THE late Reverend Mr. Joseph Caryl's Exposition upon Job is now concluded in a Second Folio Volume, as it was proposed; the whole consisting of above six hundred Sheets. That it hath been so long a doing was upon constraint, to the great vexation and loss of the Proposer; but now it is done, he hopes it will give good satisfaction, as it will be found more Correct, useful, and commendable, than any former Impression. Indeed some few Lines (no more than what may be contained in a Quarto Page) are expunged; they not relating to the Exposition: which, nevertheless, some by malicious prejudice, others by imprudent mistake, have so unjustly aggravated as if the whole Work had been disordered; to the great injury of the Proposer. It as yet continues Proposed to any that shall take off Six (a seventh Book free) at 2l. 10s. complete in Quires; which is very much inferior to the Trading price of Books, and will be found profitable to them that have already, or shall in time accept it. But for any less number than six, the Price is 3l. in Quires. There are some few Printed in extraordinary fine Paper; whereof the price is 5l. in Quires. ADVERTISEMENTS.

THERE hath been published for several Weeks past, and will be continued every Monday, a Sheet of Paper, with this Title, 'Weekly Memorials for the Ingenious, Or An Account of Books lately set forth in several Languages; with some other curious Novelties relating to Arts and Sciences.' In them, you will find Accounts of many of the newest and choicest Books set forth in Europe; and you will have transcribed from the Paris, 'Journal des Scavans,' all that is Learned and Curious; with what else may present to gratifie the Ingenious. Printed for H. Faithorne and J. Kersey at the Rose in St. Paul's Churchyard.

There is newly published a very ingenious and higly approved piece of Short-Hand, curiously engraven on Copper, Intituled, Arts Advancement. Being the most Exact, Lineal, Swift, Short, and Easie, Method of Short-Hand Writing hitherto extant: which now (after a View of all others, and above twenty Years Practise) is built on a new Foundation; and raised to a higher degree of Perfection than was ever before attain'd to by any. Invented and Composed by William Mason, Teacher of the Art, in Prince's Court, in Loathbury, near the Royal Exchange, London; where the Books are to be had, and such as desire to learn may (by him) be taught with great Expedition, and little Trouble to the Learner: the Author having contrived a very effectual way for Speed and Perfectness, and teaches the said Art at very reasonable Rates. The Book is also sold by several Booksellers in London and Westminster. Price, bound, 1s. 6d.

The said Book having already met with good Acceptance, the Author is thereby encouraged to prosecute his Designs of Ingraving and Printing the whole Bible in the same Character: a thing never done yet by any.

There is a Book newly published, The Intimate Converse of Pope [Innocent XI.] and Devil, attended by a Cardinal and Buffoon, in a Copper Plate, prefix'd to the Book; with a brief Explication thereof. With an Appendix, wherein the hellish Machinations of the Pope are further searched into, on the occasion of the never-enough-to-be-lamented Death of Sir Edmundbury Godfrey, that worthy Gentleman and zealous Protestant, Justice of the Peace, inhumanely butchered by the Ruffian Hands of the pernicious Emissaries of the Pope; with a Copper Plate of the manner of his Death, in English and Latin. The same in English as is in Latin, so it is profitable for both the English, as well as the Latin, Tongue. It is very convenient for all Gentlemen, and for all sorts of Scholars and Students: and likewise for Apprentices, that have got the Grammar or any thing of Latin, it will keep it and improve it; which their Parents have laid out a great deal of Moneys to bring them to Learning, and put them out to Trades, wherein they cannot improve their Learning; so their Money is lost, and the Scholar little the better for it: and this was one Reason for the publishing of this Book. Also it will be a useful Book for Latin Schools to be taught, it going in Phrases, that Youth may know the Designs of the Papists in their bloody Religion. By James Salgado, a Spaniard, and converted Priest of the Church of Rome. Sold by W. Marshall at the Bible in Newgate street.
