All which very much impeded the sale of the said Book; and greatly damaged the Proprietors.

Since then, useful and alphabetical Tables of the Cases are made and printed to all the Three said Volumes: wherein those Cases, which the Court did not give Judgment in, on the first Motion or Arguing, are carefully referr'd to, from page to page, till Judgment was given: which, by the Adjournments and Ante's, omitted in the former Tables of Cases, may now readily be found. To which also, lately, there are added very copious Tables of the Matter contained in every Volume, which has rendred the Book more useful to the buyer, tho' more chargeable to the Undertakers. A Set of the said Books, without the improved Tables, were usually sold at 50s.; and since, with the said Tables, at 55s.

Now the Stock of Mr. Thomas Dring, Bookseller, lately deceased; and therein, among other things, some of the 'Reports' abovementioned: for the greater encouragement to Gentlemen, and more quick sale of the said Book and return of Money; [the following] do propose to sell all the said Three Volumes, with all the new Tables of the Matter and Cases, for 25s. in Quires; by N. Keble at the Turk's Head in Fleet street.

FINIS.

Here should come in, if it were ever published,
The Term Catalogue for Michaelmas Term, 1695.
If it were actually issued, it would probably be numbered 58; which would be a misprint for 59.

A long-continued search among the London Serials of about the above date, has quite failed to prove either the publication, or the non-publication, of this particular Number: and there the matter must be left for the present. E.A.

TITLE INDEX.

1. The primary design of this Index is to remedy Robert Clavell's bungling carelessness in omitting from many of the Titles in the Text, the Names or Initials of the Authors, Editors, etc., which are to be found in the books themselves. The recovery of this information has been a most arduous undertaking, extending over months. The following references have been observed. There may possibly be others; for it has not been practicable to make this Index exhaustive and complete.
2. Advantage has also been taken to include in this Index the following useful helps:
   (a) Similar Titles of different Books. There were, at that time, a good many resemblances of the Titles of successful Works; sometimes by Imitators, at other times by Antagonists.
   (b) Different Titles to what is actually the same Text.
   (c) Each of the alternative Titles of single Poems, Plays and Novels; and the Titles of Serials.
3. The English Articles, A, An and The, have been omitted at the beginning of each Title.
4. All the Personal Names in black type in this Index will be found in the next one. E.A.

ance; especially to those two inspired Bibliographers of the British Museum Reading Room, George F. Barwick, Esq., B.A., and Lawrence H. E. Taylor, Esq., for their unceasing kindness, and most wonderful help.

I have come to regard the great Alphabetical Catalogue there, now in the able charge of Arthur W. K. Miller, Esq., with the deepest admiration. It is, by its accurate scientific method, the great 'Novum Organon' of the Twentieth Century; so that by it we may quickly attain to the Title of any printed book whatsoever preserved in that Institution.

I also desire to express my great indebtedness to W. Carew Hazlitt, Esq., for his noble bibliographical work, carried on now for more than a quarter of a century; and especially to Mr. J. G. Gray, for his Index of Mr. Hazlitt's earlier Bibliographies.

HITHERTO, this period of our Literature has, for the most part, been a sealed book. That book is now open.

Two sorts of Elections proved by the Word, with the Day of Grace; or an Offer of mercy to all that will, upon the Conditions, take hold of it; which all Israel had, till they forfeited it by their not yielding Obedience.
